Tax Treatment

Tax treatment for individual investors

1) Taxation upon sale of Units

- Gains on sale (capital gains) are deemed to be income from transfer and thus must be declared for separate taxation at 20.315%. When a beneficiary has chosen a designated account with withholding tax (withholding tax selection account), withholding tax at a rate of 20.315% will be applied (in principle, tax filing is not necessary).

2) Taxation upon receipt of income distributions

- Income distributions are regarded as dividend income, withholding tax at a rate of 20.315% will be applied (in principle, tax filing is not necessary). You can also file a tax return, and choose either separate taxation based on declaration or consolidated taxation (dividend deduction is not applicable).

3) Taxation upon redemption or repayment

- The capital gains from redemption and repayment are deemed to be income from transfer and thus must be declared for separate taxation at 20.315%. When a beneficiary has chosen a designated account with withholding tax (withholding tax selection account), withholding tax at a rate of 20.315% will be applied (in principle, tax filing is not necessary).
- By filing a tax return, you can offset capital losses from redemption, repayment, and sale against capital gains from listed stocks, dividends from listed stocks, and interest income from public and corporate bonds (only if separated taxation is selected). In addition, capital gains from redemption, repayment, sale, and income distributions, and interest income from public and corporate bonds (only if separated taxation is selected) can be offset against capital losses from listed stocks etc.
- When investing through the Nippon Individual Savings Account (NISA), dividend income and transfer income from newly purchased publicly offered equity investment trusts will be tax exempt indefinitely up to a certain amount each year. The tax exemption is available only to those who meet certain conditions, such as opening a tax-exempt account with a distributor, and who purchase products that meet the requirements of the tax law. For details, please contact the distributor.
- If foreign tax credit apply, tax on distributions may differ from the above.
- The above does not apply to Japanese corporations.
- The above tax rates are as of the date when the securities registration statement was filed, so those may change if tax laws are revised. For details of tax treatment, it is recommended to consult a tax professional.

(Reference Information) Total expense ratio of the fund-----

Target period : July 11, 2025 ~ January 10, 2026

	Total expense ratio (①+②)	① Ratio of management expenses	② Ratio of other expenses
Listed Index Fund US Bond (Currency Hedge)	0.24%	0.11%	0.13%
Listed Index Fund US Bond (No Currency Hedge)	0.24%	0.11%	0.13%

* The figure(annualized) is calculated by dividing the total expenses incurred for management and operation during the target period (in principle, excluding subscription fees, brokerage fees and securities transaction tax. Consumption tax etc. is included for items subject to consumption tax etc..) by the average number of beneficial interest units during the target period multiplied by the average NAV (per unit).

* Other expenses include expenses paid by the underlying funds.

* The cost calculation period of the underlying fund may differ from that of the fund.

* These figures are for reference only and differ from the actual ratios of expenses incurred.
