* The JPX-Nikkei Index 400 is a stock index of the top 400 stocks selected from ordinary shares listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange's Prime Market, Standard Market and Growth Market. Selection of constituent stocks is based on 1) screening of eligibility criteria and market liquidity indicators, 2) quantitative indicator-based scoring (3 year average ROE, 3 year cumulative operating profit, market capitalization), and 3) qualitative factor-based scoring (appointment of independent outside directors, IFRS adoption, disclosure of earnings in English). The calculation method employs the closing price of August 30, 2013 as its base date, assigns a value of 10,000 as that day's market capitalization, and indexes market capitalization thereafter.

$$\text{JPX-Nikkei Index 400} = \frac{\text{Market capitalization of index at the time of calculation (JPY)}}{\text{Base date market capitalization (JPY)}} \times 10,000$$

* Market capitalization of index at the time of calculation is a total of the market value based on the number of shares of index for each issue.
